Well, Heaven is a better place now that Gwen has graced it with her presence! Her smile was as beautiful as the flowers she so lovingly cultivated. Her personality as big as life itself. Dear Peter, how lucky the two of you were to share in the experience of a marriage that even death cannot undo; and to Jeremy and Austin... know that your Mom's spirit will bring you strength in the years ahead. Make her proud boys, as the two of you are her real angels! And condolences also to Gwen's sisters, her lifelong friends about whom she spoke of so lovingly. The bond will go on, as it does with sisters! Keep the twinkle in the stars Gwen, until we meet again!! xox

When we first moved to Wyevale, we had no idea who would be able to provide day care for our two young boys. Gwen over heard our dilemma at Jug City and offered her help. She was wonderful! We were very grateful. The boys are 15 & 13 now. We remember her kind ways & good sense of humour. Our condolences to the entire family.

Peter, Jeremy and Austin, please accept our heartfelt condolences on the passing of Gwen. Also to Donna, Karen and Kim, we regret your loss of another family member at such an early age. Your Aunt Alma, when she was living, spoke with great fondness of the kindness of Gwen and all of you. We appreciate how you always included her in your family celebrations with Uncle Jack. Please take comfort that Gwen will have been welcomed by a whole host of wonderful souls that went on before her. Sincerely, the Jobbitt Girls.
