On behalf of myself and the staff of Elmvale Home Buidling Centre we would like to extend our thoughts and prayers . Kerry always had a kind smile each and every time I would run into her in town. May you find strength in her deep faith and know how she loved her family. All the best in the tough weeks ahead.

My deepest condolences to Family and Friends, I didn't know Kerry personally. But it breaks my heart to see a mother ,dear wife and daughter separated from those she loved. I lost my brother at a young age too. Having the hope of seeing my brother and many others like Kerry reunited with their loved ones again has helped to cope with my loss and endure difficult days. The Bible clearly states: 1 Corinthians 15: 26 says: "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing" Death is an enemy since it separate us from our loved ones. God has the purpose of reuniting us with our loved ones through a resurrection, and eliminate death forever. Jesus clearly said: in John 11:28 "I am the resurrection and the life". He also said: "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out... What a wonderful day that will be, to see all those sleeping in death reunited with their families, Yes Kerry will live again. "God will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more neither pain nor sorrow.." (Revelations 21:3,4) May this hope comfort your hearts, Sincerely Z. Labonte

My heart goes out to Brent & family, the Duff family and so many friends that were blessed to know Kerry. Even though she's at Home with our Heavenly Father, free of sickness and pain it doesn't make those that love her, miss her any less. May God be with each one during this difficult time of loss. May the many memories, times shared and her beautiful smile, spirit be of some comfort to you all. God be with you all.
