Our sincere condolences. Bob was a wonderful friend and neighbour who will be missed. He was in high energy when we last saw him just a few weeks ago. We are thankful that we got to know him and enjoyed our visits. He was always helpful and kind, a fine example of a Gentleman.

Still in shock over the news. We just spent time with Bob, and now value our memories of our last get together. What a great generous kind friend / neighbour he became over the last few years. He will be missed by so many..... So sorry for your loss.

Dear Theresa, Jeannette and Paul Thank you very much for having published in La Voix de l'Est de Granby the death notice our your father, my cousin Bobby. This is a very sad news. Two weeks ago, cousins, my sisters Micheline and Anne Marie, Jean-Guy Legros and Jacques Noiseux were here with us for a brunch and we talked a lot of Bobby and summers passed at our cottage in Waterloo all together. But now, he is gone for good. Hoping he had a good life. We will always remember him tenderly. Monique Saurette (daughter of Thérèse Côté) and husband Jacques Robert
