

GERALD ROY MORGAN

“Found in a dead soldier’s shirt pocket, over his heart, a newspaper clipping which the young man had apparently always carried with him. His buddy opened it, read it and cried again. The clipping said so much about what his friend believed about death and life. So he sent the clipping home to the dead soldier’s parents, that they might be comforted by what their son believed, that his faith might help strengthen their faith, the clipping read something like this. “We are standing on a shore. A large sailing ship is about to pull out. Friends and relatives of ours are standing on the deck, waving goodbye, throwing streamers, calling to us, calling our names. And we call to them and to each other. ‘Look, there’s Grandma...there’s Uncle Joe...there’s Uncle Bill.’ A bell sounds. The ships begins to move away. “We stand silently for a very long time and watch as the ship goes further and further away until, finally, the mast is just a vertical pencil line on the distant horizon. Then it too goes down, until we can no longer see it. And we sigh, ‘Oh, she’s gone.’ “But gone from where? Gone from our sight. That’s all. “For at the very moment we sigh, ‘Oh, she’s gone,’ another cried on another shore is jumping up and down, laughing and yelling and pointing excitedly out to sea saying, ‘Look! She’s coming. Look, the ship Is coming home! Look! There’s Grandma...there’s Uncle Joe...there’s Uncle Bill.’” The ship is coming home. There is another shore, another dimension in which we have already begun to live. We are filled with the Spirit of our Risen Savior”

Dear Lorraine, Jill & Ben we will be near in our prayers and by your side whenever you need us. So thankful to have had time with you in Gerald's last days, they will be precious memories always. Gerald was a great brother-in-law and notably a man with a plan. We enjoyed many unexpected adventures on a need to know basis. He loved his family dearly and living every day was a joy. "A limb had fallen from our family tree, I keep hearing a voice that says grieve not for me. Remember the best times, the laughter, the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. My mind is at ease, my soul at rest. Remembering all how truly I was blessed. Continue traditions no matter how small. Go on with your life don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly so keep up your chin. Until the day comes we're together again." Forever in our hearts, Bruce & Shirley Burton
