Dear Joe, Mary, Carole and Billy. It was with great sorrow that we heard of our dear friends passing. Your dad always stopped in for coffee. We'll always remember the fun time we had playing cards (May 1) with them. Sending hug and prayers. RIP our Dear Friend.

To the sweetest man I ever met, through Gord Stewart, I can still hear his laughter; watching TV with Gord. He never missed a day releasing us women, when Gord was so sick, in his darkness hour. Joe loved putting puzzles together, and the last one Joe did had 5000 pieces; and it was a candy puzzle. Joe said it was one of the hardest puzzles he ever did, but finished it. JOE WAS A DEVOTED READER;

AND COULD READ 5 BOOKS IN A WEEK. HE WAS THE ABSOLUTE BEST FRIEND TO GORD STEWART. I pray the family finds the courage to get through; this difficult time and find healing throughout the next year. Joe will be missed by so many ☹️. Sincerely Linda Cormier. COCO SKINCARE CLINIC.

Please accept our sincere condolences for your loss,we know your families are going through a time of grief with the loss of your dad and grandpa and although time passes us too quickly memories will always remain...Joe and I had some fun times as business partners as well as some “not so professional” escapades in our younger days,I was always in awe of his strength, he was an outstanding representative of integrity as a police officer but he was always ready to have fun when the badge was off, he was a good man and although friendships wane over the yearsmemories remain.. Our heartfelt condolences Jackie and Chris Webb
