I remember many good times as a child, spending time with Aunt Myrt, Wally, and the boys, at the farm and maple bush. So saddened to hear of her passing. At the visitation, it was so nice to see the legacy left behind with a big wonderful family, wearing her brooches, and celebrating the great life she had. She will be missed. Deb Green

My sincere condolences to Myrt's family on her passing. I worked with Myrt at Sears for many years having to interact with her in the tailor shop. She was very good at her job which I appreciated very much. And a wonderful smile as well. May your memories help ease your sorrow in the coming days. Sincerely, Gwen Maguire-Loverock
