

HEATHER LYNN HAMELIN

I feel so very sad that this news of the passing of a beautiful neighbour I had for 20 years. He became my friend. Her struggles never seemed to take her ability to share a smile and make you feel appreciated... I will miss her.

Jack and family: I'm so sorry for your loss. As you know I grew up with Heather in Wyevale and when we all got married we ended up being related. We had talked over social media after she came home from her transplant and although we always planned to get together to catch up, life throws another curveball. Surround yourself with the family you both created and the memories you made. The memories sometimes fade but the love never does.

I spent many years in the Reynolds home, Heather was a little girl who loved to watch Carolyn and I practise our dance moves. She was quiet and very sweet. Over the years I would see her hard at work in the garden when I would come home. My sincere condolences to the Hamelin and Reynolds families.
