Barb, I've been thinking about your Mom lately. Sorry to hear of your loss. As you know, your Mom held a special place in my heart. She was always so kind, loving and generous to me. The times spent at your home in Bluewater and/or The Thrifty Thimble are times I've always appreciated and treasured. Hugs to you and all your family.

I am so sorry to hear of Fran's passing. My mom's (Donna) hobby was sewing, and as a child, I spent countless hours with her in the store. Before she passed last summer, we reminisced about the time we spent there. There can't be many 50 year old men that are well versed in sewing terminology, and know the meanings, all from spending time around them. I probably had to tag along until I was 6 or 7, and as excruciating as that would've been back then (we spent A LOT of time there), they are some of my fondest childhood memories.

So sorry for your loss . Fran was an amazing lady who taught me a lot about sewing . I bought my first machine from her . I would go visit her every Friday night in her store just to learn more about her craft . She was special
