June and family, please accept our sincerest condolences on your great loss. Alex was a gentleman, in every sense or the word, and you June and Alex were a very loving and inspiring couple. Your love and dedication to each other and your family was obvious and wonderful to see. We will always think of you and Alex as friends that we were very honoured to have known. Thank you both for enriching our lives in Elmvale with your friendship. Keep your chin up "Lovie". x x
